PULLMAN HAD

A Plot by a Maniac Which Was Very Cunningly Laid.

EGGED ON BY A WOMAN.

He Was Also After Manager John R. Griffin.

Delay of the Maniac in Deciding Which of the Proposed Victims Should Fall First, Gave the Police Time to Arrest Him, and Thus, Probably, Saved Two Lives-Hospital.

M. Pullman and that of John B. Griffin, the manager of the Pullman building in this city, were menaced by an insane man tonight. Both men were to have 17th and 27th of this month. The delay of the maniac in making up his mind who should be the first victim gave the police time to arrest him. The prisoner who should be the first victim gave the solice time to arrest him. The prisoner is William Sherman, who has been employed as a window cleaner around the Pulhaan building. A woman fortune teller is at present held responsible for the suggestion that placed the lives of Mr. Pulhaan and his manager in jeopardy, and the police are now endeavoring to find her and ask why she advised her batrons to commit murder.

At 5 o'clock tonight, word was brought to Manager Griffin that Sherman, usually a stendy and reliable man, was going about the building making threats to kill him and Mr. Pullman. Griffin at once started out to find the window cleaner but he had left the building after repeating his threats to several people. Griffin then sent word to the police and two officers were sent out to look for Sherman. After searching for some time they found him in the freight elevator and took him into custody. He had no hesitation in declaring that he intended to Kill either Mr. Pullman or Mr. Griffin or both of them. He said that during the afternoon he had consulted a fortune teller because he was unable to sieep. The woman told him that he was troubled by secret enemies and unless he killed them before November 17 at the men to him, and these descriptions were those of Mr. Pullman and Mr. Griffin. The woman would not tall him the names of the men unless he paid her 25. This he declined to do, as he knew the rien by the descriptions, he said Sherman said that he would have killed one of the men this afternoon if he could have made up his mind which one to take first. The man was palpably insane and was removed to the detention hospital.

The company was organized in 1884, and during the last eleven years, had negotiated more than $5,000,500 worth of loans on western farm mortgages and other collateral. The total amount of loans outstanding at the time of the last report was $3,383,522. The exact number of live loans cannot be assertained by the receiver, owing to the tangled condition of the company's affairs. It has been learned that many of the leans were paid through the Kansass City office of the company, but were never cancelled because the release, which was supposed to come from Boston, was not issued.

He is Preparing His Annual Report to Grover.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Attorney-General Harmon is busily engaged in the preparation of his annual report to the preparation of his annual report to the president. Since he has assumed the duties of the office, Judge Harmon has become impressed with the fact that a large part of the time of the supreme court of the United States is consumed hearing criminal cases which come before it on appeal from the lower United States courts or state supreme courts, and with a view to relieving the supreme court of much labor, the attorney general will recommend in his report an amendment to existing laws by which all criminal cases involving violations of United States laws other than capital cases now subject to appeal from the lower federal courts, shall go to the several United States circuit courts of appeal for final hearing. It is understood that the members of the supreme court are in favor of this proposition.

Republican Votes Against Statehood

(Special to The Herald)

BRIGHAM CITY, Nov. IL—One of the most surprising features of the political struggle just ended is the palpable lack of enthusiasm and jolification among the Republicans over their signal victory, when one comes to think how prone they are to make a mountain splurge over a mole hill victory, one's astonishment increases, and you begin to marvel. But looking down at it from a high elevation, you can readily comprehend how even the most sanguine people would fall to be enthused over a victory in which there is more honor to the vanquished than to the victors.

He length the proposition to enlist the different states in Indian education. He says there are in some cases an unwillingness to admit Indian children to schools attended by while children, and in some cases he thinks it might be necessary to continue specific Indian schools for ilmited periods. Superintendent Haliman states that a hearty co-operation was received from the state superintendents of schools in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa, and he believes that in most of these states it will be possible to transfer the work of Indian education to state authorities in a comparatively short period, Mr. Hellman discusses the difficulties which Indian children who have been at school encounter when they return to the reservations and the squalor of Indian life. He thinks efforts should be made to have agents put these Indians in homes of their own and exert every effort to prevent them from returning to their former mosts of life. The transfer of pupils from reservations to non-reservation schools has caused a great deal of trouble, and it is suggested that congress modify the present laws so it will not be necessary to secure the consent of the parents of the children to make such transfera. The general condition of Indian education, have shown interest in education.
